MOTION TO WITHDRAW

Comes now Paul J. D'Agrosa, counsel for Defendant Collin McAtee, and hereby seeks leave of Court to withdraw as attorney for Defendant. In support thereof, counsel states as follows:

1. Defendant is charged by way of Superseding Information with four misdemeanors. These offenses are related to violations of FDA regulations, for ingredients used to manufacture pet food.
2. Undersigned counsel was retained and had expected to represent Defendant through a change of plea and sentencing before this Court.
3. Counsel has accepted a position with the justice department and will be employed as an Assistant U.S. Attorney, in the Eastern District of Missouri.
4. This presents an unavoidable conflict and counsel must withdraw.
5. The government and the Defendant have been notified.
6. This matter is presently set on this Court's docket of February 12 for status.

Defendant is currently seeking substitute counsel.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, undersigned counsel seeks leave to withdraw.

Respectfully submitted,
